

Kent Exiles A.F.C.

Welcome to the Exiles third home game of the 2001 season, and the first since our heartbreaking loss to the Puma's, so we have a lot to prove to ourselves today, as well as the fans.

We still do not know if our cancelled match against the Puma's will be rescheduled, but stay tuned, we will let you know!

We have to say GET WELL SOON to Chris Dryden, who broke his ankle during the Maidstone game; we all hope to see him back soon.

On a final note, if any of you avid readers want to give us a hand during the games, we would love you to join our chain gang, not only do you receive our undying gratitude, but you'll get the best view of the game, and hear all the game talk in the players area! Something that's well worth doing, just speak to any of the players who will all point you in the right direction. (You'll also have the pleasure of Statts company all game!).
