

Kent Exiles A.F.C.

Welcome to the Exiles first home game of the 2002 season, and our fourth game overall. We are currently 6th in the table, but a win today against the reformed Cambridgeshire Cats will put us right back in the playoff hunt.

We have had a few retirees from last season, Chris Dryden, Nigel Brown and Dave 'Kiwi' Gentle amongst them, we wish them well and hope to see them at some games this year. But we have also signed several new faces, Alan Hands rejoins the club after a couple of years at the Sussex Thunder, Alan still holds most of our career rushing records, Nigel Fox, Martin Boffey, Chris Linnaird, Kris Maciolek all play their first home game with us today, and John Croucher also returns after a year out, welcome and good luck today guys.

On a final note, if any of you avid readers want to give us a hand during the games, we would love you to join our chain gang, not only do you receive our undying gratitude, but you'll get the best view of the game, and hear all the game talk in the players area! Something that's well worth doing, just speak to any of the players who will all point you in the right direction. (You'll also have the pleasure of Stattsos company all game!).

The division 2 south table stands like this at the moment –

DIVISION TWO: SOUTH	P	W	L	T	PF	PA	PCT.
Norwich Devils	5	5	0	0	172	8	1.000
Plymouth Admirals	3	3	0	0	126	17	1.000
