Welcome to the game.

Welcome to the Kent Exiles first game of 2003.

This year sees a lot of new faces at the Exiles, both in the coaching ranks as well as on the pitch. We welcome Eddie Crossley and Richard Clement as coaches; Eddie has many years of experience having coached the Leeds Cougars and Torbay Trojans in the past to name just two of his former clubs. Richard joins as a rookie coach, but played for the Bexley Barons at Cornerback for a few years.

On the playing side we welcome Stewart Muir from the Merseyside Nighthawks, Paul Taylor-Holland from the Winchester Rifles, Duncan Martin from the South Wales Warriors and Karl Smith rejoins the team after a few years with the Sabres, we also have a massive 12 rookies in the squad, a record for the club! Welcome and good luck to you all.

Unfortunately we have also lost a few faces from last year, after 7 seasons with the club Arron Holmes retires to take up a new job in Australia, and Colin Field retires from the game after 5 years with the Exiles, we wish them both well and hope to see them at our games this year (even Arron!)

In the pre-season the Exiles scrimmaged with the division 1 runner up's from last year, the PA Knights, and took on the UKC Falcons in a game defeating them 33-8. Unfortunately club stalwart Gary Mewse suffered torn knee ligaments in this game, and can probably be seen on the sideline today hobbling around in his full leg cast! Get well soon Gary

Today sees the Cambridgeshire Cats visit the Exiles for the second year in succession, last year the Cats finished third in the division behind the Bowl Champion Norwich Devils, they are hot favourites to top the table this season following Norwich's promotion, so it should be a tough encounter.

If you would like to get involved with the Exiles, or American football, in any way we can be contacted by the means listed below. We are always looking for new players, coaches, sponsors, sideline staff, etc. So drop us a line, or just ask us today!

Kent Exiles Youth Teams

2003 also sees the second year of the Kent Exiles youth teams for children aged from 7-18 years old, who will always welcome new members, they are:

Joe Alexis	Joe Chapman	Justin Tenega
Craig Griffiths	Sherif Kader	Emma Bell
Scott Mewse	Marc Turner	Lucy Donovan
Valerio Kim	Claudio Kim	Daniel Harding

We are currently searching for coaches for the teams, and would appreciate any volunteers. No qualifications are needed, as full training can be given, you just need to want to get involved!

Flag football is a non-contact version of the sport, specifically designed for children to play, it is great fun, and both boys and girls from the age of 7 can take part. The league host's regular tournaments around the country for all the teams to take part in if they wish.

The Exiles played in several tournaments last year, with both Cadet and Junior teams performing well, beating teams like the London O's, Leicester Eagles and the English Champion Selhurst Snipers along the way.
